What is a GPO?

- > Allows members to buy goods and services at a discount by negotiating lower prices through leveraging the volume potential of the membership.
- > GPO's are not resellers, but Contract Negotiators. Members are entitled to purchase through these negotiated agreements.
- > Other Cooperative Purchasing Groups or GPO's: GSA, US Communities, State Purchasing Programs

NPP Contracts

- > Publicly solicited and awarded (RFP Process); and
- > Competitively negotiated

National Purchasing Partners  LEAGUE of Oregon CITIES

Publicly Awarded Contracts

- > Obtained through the Request for Proposal (RFP) process by a Lead Contracting Agency (e.g., League of Oregon Cities, a public corporation authorized to issue RFPs)
- > Notice of Solicitation published in Oregon Daily Journal of Commerce, Seattle Daily Journal of Commerce and online at www.nppgovernment.com and www.orcities.org

National Purchasing Partners  LEAGUE of Oregon CITIES

Publicly Awarded Contracts

- > RFP includes applicable cooperative procurement "piggy backing" language that satisfies revised Oregon law (ORS 279A)
- > Upon award to the successful proposer, most local government entities across the nation may piggy back off the resulting Master Price Agreement (Contract) and satisfy local solicitation requirements without the need for additional formal solicitation.

Benefits of LOC Publicly Awarded Contracts

- > No need to draft and issue RFPs
- > No fees to participate!
- > Competitive pricing - national tier pricing
- > No minimum volume requirements to access discounts
- > Simple, easy to use process
- > Access to purchasing contracts with a wide variety of products and services (e.g., office supplies, carpet, defibrillators)
- > Increases operating efficiency by eliminating the bid process
- > NPP will intervene with suppliers to work out misunderstandings

National Purchasing Partners  LEAGUE of Oregon CITIES

How to Utilize Publicly Awarded Contracts

- > Register for membership with NPP at www.nppgovernment.com or (877)-329-8847. We will guide you through the process.
- > Review RFP, Contract, and accompanying RFP documents posted at www.nppgovernment.com.
- > Review Participating Agency's local piggy backing legal requirements to ensure compliance (piggy backing permitted in vast majority of jurisdictions).

National Purchasing Partners  LEAGUE of Oregon CITIES

How to Utilize Publicly Awarded Contracts

- > Sign the Participating Agency portion of the Intergovernmental Agreement (IGA) available on the www.nppgovernment.com website. Participating Agency should retain for its records.
- > All LOC members have already entered into an IGA that provides for cooperative procurement. As a result, LOC members are not required to sign the IGA.

National Purchasing Partners  LEAGUE of Oregon CITIES

How to Utilize the Publicly Awarded Contracts

- > All documents necessary for the public entity's legal review are located on the www.nppgovernment.com web page dedicated to each publicly awarded contract.
- > Questions? Contact Lindsey Larson at (877) 329-8847 or lindsey.larson@mynpp.com

Competitively Negotiated Contracts

- These contracts have not been publicly solicited/awarded.
- Access these contracts for purchases below the permissible threshold amount; or
- Utilize pricing as one of three informal bids if your jurisdiction permits informal solicitation.
